

One of Those...

*“The Lord is a refuge for the oppressed, a stronghold in times of trouble. Those who know your name trust in you, Lord, have never forsaken those who seek you.”
Psalm 9:9-10 (NIV)*

We’re “shifting gears” again gang!

Rekindling momentum for the finish of a really “funky” school year. (Ya Think!?) Your homes have become your classrooms. “Zoom” means more than a Batman “bubble”. (And the old school crew said, “Amen!”). Partnership between your homes and the Academy has taken on a new meaning too. My hope and prayer is that you truly find refuge in our Lord. Oppressed refers to being bummed out, sad or even depressed. Remember, He truly is our stronghold.

Let’s purpose to be one of those who know and trust Him and continue to seek Him with all we have! He’s the one that helps us bring perspective to you in the journey. No matter what piece of the family you represent...parent, student, teacher, or “crazy one”. He’s got your back.

So, let’s switch gears after our Easter break, restart, and embrace our great Lord through every part of this blessed journey.

Be blessed! -Mr. C
